WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Church said today he may offer a resolution to shut off all American aid to South Viet Nam unless drastic reforms are undertaken by the Ngo Dinh Diem government.

Church, an Idaho Democrat, said demands for stern U.S. measures — including some for a withdrawal of American military advisers — were voiced at what he described as a stormy briefing.

The two-hour closed briefing of the Far Eastern Affairs subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was conducted Thursday by Roger Hillsman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs. Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan., said he also served notice on Hillsman that the American people are fed up with being "tied up with a dictator" in the Southeast Asian country.

Church told a reporter the briefing reflected "a deteriorating situation" in South Viet Nam growing out of the Diem regime's treatment of Buddhists.

Mild temperatures, partly cloudy skies and patches of fog made up this morning's Arkansas weather, but no rain was in prospect for today or Saturday.

The cooler weather was expected to keep afternoon highs in the low to mid 80s today and lows to night were expected to range 58-68.

The unexpected showers that developed in northern and western Arkansas Thursday produced more than an inch of rain at Camden, Antioch and Daisy, and Mena.

Jones Will Not Interfere Again

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie (Red) Jones said Thursday he would not attempt to block opening of bids on state printing contracts Sept. 20.

Jones disapproved of the contracts prior to the scheduled opening of bids on them June 13 and they were rewritten. He said they contained restrictive clauses and dual specifications.

As a member of the state Printing Board, Jones must approve the contracts before bids on them can be opened.

He said of the new contracts Thursday, "In my opinion, all prospective bidders will have an opportunity to bid competitively."

Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said bids on the rewritten contracts would be opened Sept. 20.

Hardest Thing to Understand About Modern Art Is How Anybody Else Can Claim To

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions—and how many do you agree with?

There is a great deal of prattle about the difference between the sexes.

Less is said about how much alike they are. One of the chief characteristics of any human being, whether he be a man or a woman, is his stubborn determination to have his own way—no matter what he must do to achieve it, or how much he hurts himself and others in doing so.

It is this human characteristic, common to us all as individuals, that causes willful mankind more woe than all the differences of sex, religion and money put together.

State Welfare Cutback in Services

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Welfare Department announced cutbacks Thursday in dental, hospitalization and physician visit services to clients.

Welfare Commissioner Jim Phillips said the cutbacks were made to enable the department's hospitalization and home nursing care program to stay within its 1963-64 budget of $14.5 million.

He said the cutback, made in July, would be temporary and that he did not think anyone would be drastically hurt by it.

The move means that a welfare client will be allowed only one free visit by a physician each month instead of two, that he will no longer be able to get free dentures and that the free hospital stay is cut from 30 to 20 days.

Nursing home grants, clinic visits, eye service, transportation and care in private homes were not affected by the cutback.

Phillips said that the rate of expenditure in June, the department would have ended the fiscal year with a $1.5 million deficit.

Fallout Shelter For Huntsville

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A $126,000 district fallout shelter at Huntsville will be dedicated Sept. 13. The shelter will also serve as a communications center in northwest Arkansas for State Police, Civil Defense and other agencies. The 108-foot long, 38-foot wide structure would accommodate 51 top-echelon personnel in state agencies in event of nuclear attack.

Sees Little Chance for Proposal

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., predicted today that the Senate will reject Sen. Barry Goldwater's proposed "Cuban reservation" to the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

The Arizona's demand that the effectiveness of the pact be postponed until the Soviet Union removes all its military forces from Cuba is an attempt to kill the treaty, Aiken said.

A supporter of the ban on all but underground tests, Aiken said an overwhelming majority will vote for ratification and less than one-third of the Senate's 33 Republican senators will support Goldwater, a potential Republican presidential nominee.

In announcing to the Senate on Thursday he intends to propose such a reservation, Goldwater may have tossed the treaty into the Republican presidential campaign.

The greatest concern of the American people, Goldwater said, is the existence of "a Soviet military base 90 miles from our shore, a base illegally occupied and brutally held."

"This proposed test ban treaty cannot be a first step toward peace if it must stumble over Soviet missiles and troops in Cuba," he said.

There were immediate critical responses from Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana; his chief deputy, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota; and Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, who helped negotiate the treaty.

Goldwater's reservation, Mansfield declared, would be "a mischievous toying with the health and hopes" of the American people for "the first steps toward a saner and more mature world through curbs on nuclear testing."

And, Harriman told the Economic Club of Detroit that Goldwater is "trying to make a political issue of the pact." Goldwater's proposal "doesn't make any sense," Harriman said.

Aiken, in an interview, said he is "not in favor of any reservation."

"It's rather late in the day for the U.S. to call for side issues," he declared.

Formal Senate debate begins on Monday, when the treaty is called up for ratification.

Following two grafts embargoed for 5:30 a.m. EST

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., announced he will "vote reluctantly to ratify the treaty, unless facts which appear subsequently will supply that weight of evidence which places this clearly in the character of being contrary to our national safety."

In an address prepared for Senate delivery, Allott said while he felt, at least to a degree, that the United States has "been black-jacked into ratification of this treaty, a failure to ratify it could destroy our already fast-diminishing claim to the moral leadership of the world."

China Declares Russia Stirred Border Trouble

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Staff Writer

TOKYO (AP)—Red China accused the Russians today of trying to subvert a district government of its uranium-rich Sinkiang Province and of stirring up trouble along their common border in 1960. It said thousands of Chinese were lured or forced into the Soviet Union and are still there.

Furthermore, the blast over Peking Radio charged that Premier Khrushchev in 1958 "put forward unreasonable demands designed to bring China under Soviet military control." These demands were not explained.

But Peking was more specific about what it says has been going on in Sinkiang, the remote province in northwest China where Moscow in 1950 won the right to exploit various minerals including uranium, used in the manufacture of nuclear weapons.

A Chinese language version said the Russians admitted tens of thousands of Chinese into Soviet territory last year in an attempt to overthrow the Chinese administration of Ili, a district in Sinkiang.

Presumably they would be used as a fifth column in Ili, once controlled by czarist Russia.

An English language broadcast, however, spoke of Soviet subversive activity in Ili and called it an example of "how the leaders of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union have sabotaged Chinese-Soviet unity."

"In April and May, 1962," Peking said in the English broadcast, "the CPSU used their organs and personnel in Sinkiang, China, to carry out large-scale subversive activities in the Ili region and enticed and coerced several tens of thousands of Chinese citizens into going to the Soviet Union."

It said Peking lodged repeated protests but that Russia had refused to repatriate them on the "pretext of the 'sense of Soviet legality' and 'humanitarianism.'"

It added that "to this day, this incident remains unsettled."

Methodists to Honor Mrs. Hyatt

First Methodist Church will pay tribute at the Sunday morning service to Mrs. B. C. Hyatt for 25 years' service as church organist.

Mrs. Hyatt always wanted to be a church organist and started early. Soon after beginning lessons, she played on a little reed organ at the Episcopal Church, substituting for her teacher, Mrs. Clyde Hill, who was the regular organist. During her senior year in high school she played the pipe organ at St. Mark's Church for $2 per week.

Mrs. Hyatt took her first formal organ lessons as a senior at Randolph Macon. She also played at the Rivermont Methodist Church and accompanied the school chorus.

She returned to Hope to teach and became organist at the Presbyterian Church Two years later she accepted a position in the Monticello schools, as requested by that city's Presbyterian pastor, and played the church organ.

There she met and married her husband. During the following seven years in Monticello she had four children but was able to be the organ most of the time.

When her husband died, she returned to Hope to live with her parents and to teach. She was substitute in various churches until 1938 when she became organist and First Methodist Choir director. During the 25 years she has served under eight pastors: Fred Harrison, Kenneth Spore, R. B. Moore, J. E. Cooper, J. M. Hamilton, Virgil Keeley, Rufus Sorrells and Raymond Franks.

Her entire family will share Sunday's happy occasion with her. Gifts may be made to the Church Organ Fund in her honor if friends so desire.

Teachers in New York Plan Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The governing body of the AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers has voted to strike the New York City public school system on opening day Monday in defiance of a State Supreme Court order.

"If necessary, we'll conduct the strike from jail," said Charles Cogen, president of the union.

Max J. Rubin, president of the Board of Education, said the schools will open for the more than a million pupils Monday—no matter what the union does.

The union's Delegate Assembly voted at a tumultuous meeting Thursday night to strike. The assembly rejected the board's final contract offer by an announced vote of 1,500 to 17.

The court order, requested by the Board of Education, was signed Thursday by Justice George Postel. It prohibits the union from advising its members to pursue a "no contract, no work" policy. It also forbids picketing or other interference with normal school operations.

Officials of the union were directed to show cause in court Monday why an injunction against a strike should not be issued.

School officials say the dispute over pay is the major reason for the impasse in negotiations. The federation says the pay dispute is one of the reasons and that the union's demands on improved working conditions and educational conditions are important.

The union, which claims 21,000 members among the city's 43,000 public school teachers, is the recognized collective bargaining agent for all.

Both Dalton and Oklahoma Gov. Henry Bellmon said they thought Goldwater could carry their states.

Dalton said Kennedy carried Missouri by only 9,800 votes in 1960 and the situation in his state now is "very cloudy" politically.

Bellmon said he has urged Republicans in his state not to send a convention delegation instructed for any particular candidate.

Kansas' Republican Gov. John Anderson said Goldwater was the "top man on the totem pole right now."

Teachers Are Better Qualified

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Education Department said Thursday only one of 16,370 teachers in the public school system last term had fewer than 30 hours of college credit. The one teacher was a substitute. The department said the figure compared to 255 teachers during the 1950-51 school year who had less than 30 hours of college work. Under a 1957 law all teachers in the system must hold a degree from a qualified college. Those teachers in the system since 1957 must attend summer courses to work toward a degree.

Faubus Says Arkansas for Goldwater

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday he thought Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., could carry Arkansas as a candidate for the presidency and Gov. John Dalton of Missouri termed President Kennedy's situation "not too bright."

The two men spoke out at a four-state meeting of governors called to discuss tourism.

Faubus said that Kennedy's popularity was declining and Goldwater's was going up. He also said he didn't think Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, a brother of Winthrop Rockefeller, Republican national committeeman from Arkansas, could carry the state against Kennedy.

Both Dalton and Oklahoma Gov. Henry Bellmon said they thought Goldwater could carry their states.

Dalton said Kennedy carried Missouri by only 9,800 votes in 1960 and the situation in his state now is "very cloudy" politically.

Bellmon said he has urged Republicans in his state not to send a convention delegation instructed for any particular candidate.

Kansas' Republican Gov. John Anderson said Goldwater was the "top man on the totem pole right now."

While they were making their entry, a state highway patrol loudspeaker boomed, "Don't hurt them, don't hurt them; let them go in!"

School days were delayed for the four Negro children who had been ordered admitted into white schools by the federal courts.

S.W. Hereford IV, whose father was one of those who sued in federal court for desegregation, was the first Negro turned back. Two Federal Bureau of Investigation agents accompanied the Hereford party.

It was the same story at three other schools for the three other Negroes—John Brewton, 7; Veronica Terrell Pearson, 13; and David C. Piggie, 6. FBI agents were seen at all of these school grounds.

"Thank you, sir," Mrs. Odell Pearson told a trooper sergeant who advised her, "No school today."

City Atty. Joe Payne said the city planned no legal action because Wallace had assured officials that school opening would be permitted Monday.

"This is an unfortunate situation we have been subjected to by the governor," Mayor R.B. Searcy said. "We did not ask for troops to be sent in here and I did not want them."

"I think Wallace should remember he is fussing at the federal government for sending troops into our state."

The early morning executive order of Wallace said he

Suit Is Filed
LITTLE ROCK - Suit was filed in federal District Court plainant firms E. T. Allen Co., of Atlanta, Nathan Segal and Co.,

Inc., of Houston and Acme Grain

The suit claimed that Bronson
Woodworth, president of the grain firm, mailed $3,000 to each of five friends before he was arrested
March 12 and subsequently charged with obtaining money through fraud by inducing the Bank of Russellville to accept bills

The wedding of Mrs. Ava Hicks and Billy Wayne Walston was solemnized in an impressive double ring ceremony on August 4, at three o'clock. Wallace Alexander officiated at the nuptials spoken in the Ball's Chapel Church of Christ in McCaskill, Ark.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hicks of McCaskill and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Walston of Nashville.

Vows were exchanged at an improvised altar setting featuring a white archway entwined with English ivy. Facial paint in the center was white wedding bells tied with silver streamers. Flanking the arrangements were two baskets of white gladioli and greenery. Family pews were designated by white satin bows.

Soloist, Mrs. Bill Beene, sang "Always" and the "Lord's Prayer" as the benediction prayer.

It was caught at the wrists and center back with tiny pearl buttons. Her bridal illusion veil was attached to a pearlized bandeau. She carried a cascade of white carnation showered with net puffs encircling an orchid mounted a top a white Bible.

HIS THEME SONG: "THAT OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE"

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I think I will surely die of a broken heart. The man I love is in love with the memory of an old sweetheart who turned him down when both were in their teens.

He married but never forgot her. His wife was killed four years ago in a train accident yet he still carries the torch for that teen sweetheart. I'm the stop-gap. We've been going together three years. He says he never wants to marry again but doesn't want to stop seeing me. I've tried breaking with him but fall sick every time.

We're both in our forties and at this age you can imagine the turmoil between us for I'm far from being cold. It's a funny thing but I look like his old sweetheart.

fice said Wallace is a strong supporter of education and that his action was caused by unusual circumstances which he said existed in Alabama.

At the other schools, the troopers ran into resentment on the part of parents. One woman wanted to know, "What would you do if we broke through?" Troopers ignored the question.

Wallace contends he can close public schools by an executive order such as that he issued early today affecting Huntsville under broad police powers written into state law. The statutes, however, do not clearly outline his authority in such matters.

The blue-shirted troopers stationed themselves in front of the schools early in the day. They advised children, and parents, that their walks from home had been useless.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — School officials, backed by the city government, prepared today to desegregate four white schools in defiance of a delay request from Gov. George Wallace.

The school board rejected Wallace's appeal for a second postponement and the City Council, in a special session punctuated with strong criticism of Wallace, wired the governor to keep out.

This move apparently set up another city-state showdown on the boiling Alabama segregation issue. Four Negro pupils were to join white children in school.

State troopers stood by but gave no hint of their mission.

"Whatever the governor says we'll do—and he hasn't said yet," said Maj. Walter L. Allen, commander of the troopers in Huntsville.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — A state-city showdown loomed here today over school desegregation. The Huntsville Board of Education defied an executive order by Gov. George Wallace closing four schools scheduled for integration this morning and said all schools were open.

The school board directed approximately 24,000 pupils to report for classes.

Wallace had ordered the four schools scheduled for integration to remain closed until Monday.

It was the same action the governor took four days ago to stop the opening of a school in Tuskegee, also under federal court order to integrate.

Again, as at Tuskegee, state troopers were on duty at the four Huntsville schools more than an hour before classes were scheduled to begin.

Each of the three elementary schools and one junior high school are under directives from the federal courts to admit one Negro pupil for this term.

There was no immediate comment from the city school superintendent, Dr. Raymond Christian.

While state troopers blocked the entrance to the four schools, city police cruised back and forth, but there was no indication of any effort to force their way through the lines of troopers.

The city council had said

by the wedding march.

Dear Helen: I am a sensible 15-year-old girl; modest, quiet and conscientious, but like any teen, enjoy going out. I help my mother with the housework, earn my own spending money and act the mature girl I am but Mom doesn't treat me as one. She says if I date, I must be home by 8:15. I hold out for 9 to 9:30. She says "no" then the argument starts.

Don't you think 8:15 too early? I'm afraid the boys who date me will feel like cradle snatchers. —Want-to-Be-Treated-Right

Dear Want-to-Be-Treated-Right: Eighteen does seem an early curfew for a 15-year-old. On Friday and Saturday nights your mother might be more liberal. The right curfew for teens depends to a certain extent on the custom prevailing among other young people in their community and the individual retiring habits of their parents. If parents are in the habit of going to bed early, it's not fair for children to insist on staying up very much beyond the parents' bedtime. As in many other matters of family life, reasonable compromise is indicated.

Dear Helen: I have been going steady with the same boy for two years. Recently, with the excuse that I'm a flirt, he suddenly broke with me. Should I wait for him to phone or ask him to take me back? I still love him. —In Love

Dear In Love: Do neither. Instead, find other boys (Note: plural) to take his place. The more, the merrier.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mr. and Mrs. Imon Lynn Brown

Miss Carole Jean Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dennis of Winslow, Ark. and Imon Lynn Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Brown of Prescott, were united in matrimony August 4, in the Baldwin Church of Christ, Fayetteville, Ark.

George Dockery, uncle of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony before a background of Gladioli and white mums.

The bride wore a white heavy brocade file dress suit with tiny buttons accenting the back and quarter length sleeves. She carried a white Bible topped with carnations and satin streamers.

Miss Virgie Wood of Winslow was maid of honor. She was attired in a blue street length dress with a headpiece similar to the bride. She carried a bouquet of carnations.

Larry Clark served the groom as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Room of the Church.

After September 1, the couple will be at home in Fayetteville, where the bridegroom will be a student at the University and his wife, a graduate of the University, will teach in the Elkins schools.

schools would open regardless of the governor.

Mayor R. B. Searcy and city councilmen lashed out at the governor's actions.

"I have never been contacted about state troopers being sent to Huntsville," Searcy said. "They were not requested."

The mayor said he was pleased that the school board decided to open the schools in this city of 100,000 which draws its economic sustenance from sprawling Redstone Arsenal, home of Marshall Space Flight Center and the Army Missile Command.

Councilman Louis B. Lee Sr. said of Wallace:

"He is becoming the dictator of Alabama."

Wallace was not available for comment on the resentment of the officials in Huntsville—where the racial climate is far cooler than that in Birmingham and other tension spots. Huntsville has only 17 per cent Negro population and has had very little racial trouble.

Troopers also moved into Mobile where two Negroes might begin classes at a white school today.

In Tuskegee, where state police barred school doors Monday, white segregationists said they would petition the board to keep the school closed.

In other Alabama racial developments:

A Negro airman said he had applied for admittance Sept. 25 to the University of Alabama Center in Montgomery. The main campus at Tuscaloosa, where Wallace made a brief doorway stand, and the Huntsville branch were desegregated last June.

4 Negroes Escape From State Prison

GRADY, Ark. (AP)—Four Negroes escaped from Cummins State Prison Farm Thursday and officials used bloodhounds to track them to a heavily wooded area but the men remained at large early this morning.

Supt. Dan Stephens said the unarmed men slipped away from a work line in a high patch of cotton and ran into the woods.

Stephens said authorities knew about where the men were.

He said the prisoners were Fred Hooks, 17, sentenced in Pulaski County to life for murder; Chester Jerome Nash, sentenced in St. Francis County to nine years for burglary; Lawrence Willie Turner, 21, sentenced in Lee County to 10 years for burglary and grand larceny and Theodore Clark, 23, sentenced in Woodruff County to 21 years for burglary.

Airplanes were used in the afternoon search after the escape two miles north of Gould.

The last time that four men made their way out of the prison was Jan. 1, 1950, when four prisoners shot a trusty guard to death in a barracks.

Authorities said after the four men escaped they stole a truck belonging to a Richard Jones of Gould but later abandoned it on a dead-end farm road about five miles west of Gould.

State Police, sheriff's deputies and prison officials had sealed off a 40-square mile area within three

Donna Wins Swim Suit Competition

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Miss District of Columbia, who was told to keep her skirt on, and Miss Arkansas, who eats to keep her figure, are second round winners in the Miss America contest.

Miss District of Columbia swirled her skirt but did not doff it while winning Thursday night's talent competition with a jazzy song and dance routine.

Miss Arkansas stoked up on fudge brownies before triumphing in swim suit competition.

Rosanne Tueller of McLean, Va., the talent winner, said that in her original French style interpretation of Cole Porter's song "I Love Paris," she whipped her skirt off exposing black tights. But at the rehearsal before last night's performance, Lenora Slaughter, executive director of the Miss America pageant, decided that once a girl goes on stage in a skirt, that skirt may not come off in view of the audience.

Swim suit winner Donna Axum, a brown-haired beauty from El Dorado, Ark., said her weight problem is the opposite of most girls.

"I can walk around town and lose two pounds. I was worried about losing a lot of weight here because of the lack of sleep and the diet we've had."

She and the other girls from 50 states and two cities have been eating on the run. But before the competition last night Miss Axum managed steak and baked potatoes for lunch, then drank milk and cream and nibbled on fudge brownies all afternoon.

By their victories Miss District of Columbia and Miss Arkansas joined Misses Virginia and Alabama as winners of preliminary rounds in America's oldest beauty pageant. Each preliminary winner is assured of a $1,000 scholarship.

Evening gown competition also has been held each night, but its winners never are announced. All so kept secret are the names of runners-up in all preliminaries.

After another preliminary judging round tonight, the judges will choose the 10 semifinalists for Saturday night. The selections won't be announced until then.

The 10 semifinalists will go through talent, swim suit, and evening gown competition all over again. Then the top five will be picked.

One of the five will be named Miss America. She will be crowned about midnight Saturday.

hours after the men made their break.

The search was concentrated Thursday night in a sparsely settled area west of U.S. Highway 65.

I went to New York by plane on the 30th of June. From there we left the next day for Frankfurt, Germany. We remained in Frankfurt one night then we went to Switzerland. We remained in our chosen country, Switzerland, for a period of seven weeks and from there we went to Paris for one week.

As far as discrimination is concerned, I find that they inwardly feel something against the Italians. This I attribute to the fact of the large number of growing industries and the large number of construction jobs available, which has attracted a large number of them. Therefore, due to the conduct of the workers who come, they see only one side of the Italians and thus form a mental picture of the entire country. This is natural and is to the contrary not as openly shown as the feeling of the people is shown in America.

The Swiss people are to my thinking more hospitable than the Americans. We, as in integrated group, were treated with the best of hospitality everywhere we went. Every person we came in contact with was always on his or her best behavior.

The churches of the country are operated in a different manner than in the U. S. I found that the people do not attend church as we Americans do. The country is divided up into 22 cantons or states and each canton holds an election to determine whether it will be Catholic or Protestant. This means whether or not its tax money will support one of these churches. The church in the minority will get its support the best way possible and the other will be supported by the government.

As far as national defense is concerned, the country has no standing army. This can be attributed to the fact that the country is so small, it cannot afford to support a standing army. Instead, in every home there are guns and ammunition. Every male, at the age of 17, must go for a training period of a few weeks and then he returns home with the tools of war he has been trained with. After that he must return each year for a refresher course. The country is neutral and therefore doesn't intend to attack anywhere outside its boundaries. My Trip To Switzerland
On The International Experiment On Social Living
By William E. Baxelle
I went to New York by plane on the 30th of June. From there we left the next day for Frankfurt, Germany. We remained in Frankfurt one night then we went to Switzerland. We remained in our chosen country, Switzerland, for a period of seven weeks and from there we went to Paris for one week.

I am not to give a travel log because from that you don't learn any more than can be gotten from a travel folder. I will attempt to interpret the impression given me by the people themselves.

As far as discrimination is concerned, I find that they inwardly feel something against the Italians. This I attribute to the fact of the large number of growing industries and the large number of construction jobs available, which has attracted a large number of them. Therefore, due to the conduct of the workers who come, they see only one side of the Italians and thus form a mental picture of the entire country. This is natural and is to the contrary not as openly shown as the feeling of the people is shown in America.

The Swiss people are to my thinking more hospitable than the Americans. We, as in integrated group, were treated with the best of hospitality everywhere we went. Every person we came in contact with was always on his or her best behavior.

The churches of the country are operated in a different manner than in the U. S. I found that the people do not attend church as we Americans do. The country is divided up into 22 cantons or states and each canton holds an election to determine whether it will be Catholic or Protestant. This means whether or not its tax money will support one of these churches. The church in the minority will get its support the best way possible and the other will be supported by the government.

The women in the country work as do the men. It is very common to see a woman in the fields raking, cutting or what have you. As far as voting the women do not have the right to vote nationally. However, in some cantons they can vote on cantonal business.

The country has four official languages. They are, in there order of usage, German, French, Italian, and Reto-Romanish. The parliament acknowledges the first three and a person in parliament can use either of the three he likes.

As far as national defense is concerned, the country has no standing army. This can be attributed to the fact that the country is so small, it cannot afford to support a standing army. Instead, in every home there are guns and ammunition. Every male, at the age of 17, must go for a training period of a few weeks and then he returns home with the tools of war he has been trained with. After that he must return each year for a refresher course. The country is neutral and therefore doesn't intend to attack anywhere outside its boundaries. But, they say that, if they are attacked they will meet their attackers from every

Hope-Porkers Kickoff at 8 p.m. Tonight

Tonight's game between the Texarkana Razorbacks and the Hope Bobcats should attract one of the largest opening game crowds in years. The kickoff is set for 8 o'clock.

It should afford fan of both teams a chance to see how their favorites are going to stack up this season. All signs indicate the contest should be close and could go either way.

With Coach Swede Lee in his second year, Texarkana should be very much improved. Hope managed to down the Razorbacks 13-0 three last season. They are expected to have a much better team this year.

The Bobcats will claim a weight advantage in the line, 200 to 173, but the visitors will be heavier in the backfield, 171 to 163. Both teams have experience but Texarkana might have the depth to wear down the Bobcats.

Coach Ben Burton wants his first game with the Bobcats badly, but fears their physical condition. And Coach Lee can't see either team getting beat badly. It should prove to be an outstanding contest, pairing two strong teams.

Boyer Doubles in 12th, Yanks Take Another

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The 100,000th major league baseball game in history will be played in Washington tonight.

It is not true that the Senators have lost most of them. It just seems that way to Gil Hodges.

Actually, the Senators have lost only 5,153. But, for the rookie manager of the 10th-place team, the last one must be among the most painful.

It was a 3-2, 12-inning loss to New York's Yankees Thursday in which Hodges' pitchers held the Yanks to three hits for 11 innings, his infield kicked in the tying run and he lost, temporarily at least, the services of his top hitter, Chuck Hinton.

Hinton as struck on the left side of the head, just below the protective helmet, by a Ralph Terry pitch. He retained consciousness, but was carried from the field on a stretcher and hospitalized overnight. He was listed in satisfactory condition.

Terry went all the way, winning his 16th against 13 losses on a 12th-inning double by Clete Boyer and a run-producing single by Hector Lopez.

Chicago beat Kansas City 4-1 and took over second place, 13 games back of the Yanks, when Los Angeles beat Minnesota 8-5 in a night game. Detroit beat Boston 5-2 in the only other American League game scheduled.

In the National League, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers shut out the Chicago Cubs 4-0. St. Louis walloped the New York Mets 9-0. Houston defeated San Francisco 5-2 in 10 innings and Milwaukee belted Pittsburgh 8-0. Philadelphia and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

The 100,000th game gimmick was discovered by an exhaustive check of files by officials at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., and was announced just a couple of days ago by Commissioner Ford Frick.

The Senators are going to mark the milestone with appropriate pre-game ceremonies, chiefly featuring a comedian and some of his buddies. They'll have to be funny to get a chuckle from the usually pleasant Hodges, who has had his troubles.

He took over the 10th place team 11 games back of the Yankees. They're still in 10th, now 4½ games back. The Thursday loss must have been one of the most frustrating.

Steve Ridzik and Ed Roeluck had held the champions to just three hits through nine innings and Ron Kline held them hitless for two more before Boyer doubled in the 12th. Lopez then delivered a drive that bounced into the lower right-field stands. It would have gone as a ground rule double, but Lopez stopped at first.

Million Dollar Ozan Creek Watershed Is Approved

SURVEY CREWS STARTED WORK THURSDAY ON THE PROPOSED million dollar North Fork of Ozan Creek Watershed which has been approved by the Soil Conservation Service. The area involved is some 47,000 acres with approximately 38,000 acres in Hempstead, 3,000 in Howard and 6,000 in Pike county. Completion is expected within five years.

THE PLAN CALLS FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF 10 LAKES OF ABOUT 100 acres each, all but two in Hempstead County. The location of the lakes are indicated on the map by squares. The lakes will belong completely to landowners who will have full say about any fishing or recreational rights.

THE PROJECT IS A JOINT UNDERTAKING WITH THE FEDERAL government paying for work and landowners furnishing the right-of-way.

Football Player Dies After Surgery

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. P — Roger Miller, 17, of Dardanelle, who would have been the starting quarterback for the Dardanelle High School football team, died Thursday following surgery Wednesday for a ruptured intestine.

Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Miller of Dardanelle, was hospitalized about 2 a. m. Wednesday and was operated on later that day.

Dr. Ernest King of Russellville said Miller had been practicing football Tuesday but added his death was not necessarily connected with the practice session.

Profiles of the Current Porkers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
JIM GRIZZLE's honest touting of himself as a great end has made him familiar to most Arkansas fans. Not only that, he's doing a good job of proving most of what he says. He slammed down opposition ball carriers 19 times last season with assistance, intercepted to passes, broke up two other pass plays and covered three fumbles. He caught four passes for 44 yards and one touchdown. He led the team in defensive statistics, the first time an end had ever done so. Jim, a 195-pounder, hails from Fort Smith.

TOM MCKENNELLY of Little Rock is called "the toe." His job is kicking field goals and extra points and he's gaining the respect accorded Mickey Cissell, the recent Razorback kicker, who provoked, one Texas writer wrote, the wearing of Cissell-feet on key chains by Texas jackrabbits. He kicked a 27-yard field goal to give Arkansas a triumph over Southern Methodist University last season, and it was his field goal against Texas that gave Arkansas the lead until the last 36 seconds last year.

GARY HOWARD has versatility. He played both guard and end last year and did some linebacking on the side. Now that Jim John is healthy at end, Howard, a 190-pounder from Tulsa, Okla., returns to guard and linebacking. While playing end last season he snagged five passes for 49 yards and a touchdown. He was born at Fort Smith, but was raised in Oklahoma and his ability to do

Brazilians Turn Into Giant Killers

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—It's one down and one to go for Brazil's astounding "giant-killer twins," intent on upsetting the balance of power in the National Tennis Championships.

The cudgel is passed today to the younger of the two, Thomas Koch, 18, of Porto Alegre, quarter-final opponent of the top-seeded favorite, Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex.

Koch's teammate, Ronald Barnes, 22, a circuit veteran of English parentage out of Rio de Janeiro, handed the tournament its second major surprise in 24 hours by beating Davis Cup hero Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., seeded No. 3, Thursday 6-4, 7-5, 6-3.

The upset compared with that of the day before when Frank Froehling eliminated second-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia—thus assuring the end of that country's eight-year monopoly of the men's title.

The 6-foot-3 Froehling bidding for a spot on the U.S. Davis Cup team, followed up his Emerson triumph with a quarter-final victory Thursday over Bobby Wilson of Britain 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 9-7.

Froehling and Barnes are matched in one of Saturday's men's semifinals with the other to be determined today.

Shoulder Is Giving Pain to Palmer

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Arnold Palmer's aching shoulder threatened today to take the edge off his showdown meeting with burly Jack Nicklaus, placid Julius Boros and solemn Bob Charles in the $75,000 World Series of Golf this weekend.

"It's worse than ever," an obviously worried Palmer said Thursday after winning with pain after his first practice round over the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course, where the 36-hole medal exhibition play begins Saturday.

"I'm not even thinking of withdrawing or anything like that," he added, "but I won't play again until Saturday unless it gets a lot better. You can just put your hand on it and feel it crack."

That Palmer is suffering from a bursitis of the right shoulder was revealed Thursday as he began his first warmup for the television spectacular that rewards the winner with $50,000.

Golf's No. 1 money winner disclosed the pain first appeared while he was in California last week filming a sports show, kicked up again during an exhibition at Waukegan, Ill., last weekend and worsened here.

Although X-rays showed no serious calcium deposits, Palmer said a doctor told him there are ragged traces on the bones of his shoulder and that the inflammation is caused by the friction of them rubbing together when he turns on the power in his mighty swing.

The rest of the cast for the weekend test, in which the last six holes will be televised nationally by NBC each day, was in good health if not bristling with optimism.
